

Title: Lead Technician - Low Voltage Systems

Start Date: Immediately

Position Description:

The successful candidate will possess strong technical knowledge, demonstrate the ability to learn new skills and have an overall sense for problem solving.

The successful candidate should have previous experience in some of the areas listed below, and the successful candidate will also be the one that brings a sufficient level of experience and exposure to the table. Furthermore, the successful candidate must show a desire to learn and develop a skill base in these areas. NTSI will provide on the job training and certifications as proven potential is realized.

The successful candidate will have the drive and skillset to lead projects and provide direction to other installers. Please note this position may require some travel in the following states: IL, OH, PA, AR, AL.

Knowledge & Fields of Work:

- Installation and Integration of Networked Voice, Data and Fiber Optic Cable
- Installation and Integration of Data (structured/wireless) Systems
- Installation and Integration of Telephone Systems (Analog, Digital and VoIP)
- Installation and Integration of Security Alarm Systems
- Installation and Integration of (Door) Access Control Systems
- Installation and Integration of CCTV Systems (Analog and IP-Based)
- Installation and Integration of Audio Systems
- Setup of Computer Systems and Peripherals
- Programming Knowledge for Various Systems

Responsibilities:

- Work Independently as well as work within a team setting
- Install and troubleshoot systems as described above
- May be required to do research and provide input when scoping out future work
- Submit paperwork and documentation as required in a timely manner
- May need to interface directly with end customers in a professional manner
- Some travel may be required

Requirements:

- Possess and Maintain a Clean Driving Record
- Strong Communication (Verbal and Written) Skills
- Strong Troubleshooting/Problem Solving Skills
- Ability to use Reason and Resourcefulness to Act Autonomously
- Strong Organization/Time Management Skills
- Excellent Attention to Detail

Further Attributes:

- Previous safety training is appreciated (Working at Heights, Aerial Lift Certified, etc.)
- Ability to read and understand blueprints and floor plans
- Project management knowledge/experience is appreciated

Job Status:

- Full time; Hourly $18-$20 (depending on experience and expertise) per hour at an estimated 40-hour work week. Overtime hours maybe required.